Snow Shoe Hare?

Well I have no bloody idea what run we're up to but I can say it was the first of this year!

Now it has been a little while since I've made it to a Hash with RDH3 and it seems that was good enough reason to be asked to scribe. I see this as a pleasure not a burden as I get to control the narrative of the history that is recorded in the annals of RDH3.

OK...annals is NOT how half of you want to have sex...that's anal! I'm equally sure that the other half are female.

Gathered on this wonderful first Thursday of the New Year were Curb Crawler, Broken Boner, Chips A whore, Drippy, Wet Denim, Cum See, Premie, G Spot, Climax, Lost and Found, Doggie Style, Don't Know Dick, Humidities, and a Moby Of Dickus in what seemed like long pants? Where's the shorts and why have you allowed him to become so soft??

We circled up near the Marina in the lovely town of Sylvan Lake, it was dark and cool and we were given clear instructions from the Hare on how to proceed. There was trail and all that was required was for everyone to bind to their feet snow shoes so the we might all feel like Hares!

Very unique were these hares with their new foot attachments the question was how do you catch such unique Hares? Well.... unique up on them! So bounding gracefully across the snow and ice the pack of unique hares set off along the trail. Well, all but one. Chips apparently tickled his truck in all the right places, it was so turned on he couldn't bare to leave it alone. Finally, after deciding he couldn't do anything about it he set off to catch up.

Like many animals these unique hares were drawn to distant lights and so they ended up having a regroup amongst all the Christmas Lights strung around the beach and park. Like all great Hashing nights, the group photos included everyone but the Hare. Yep the pack was off trail and had lost the Hare. Some things never change. Eventually we discovered that G spot was not up to bounding and only capable of feinting. NOTE: I've heard of feinting goats, cats that go limp when you put them on their back but this was the first time I've seen it in a snow shoe Hare. The real good news is that we found the G spot and was able to arouse her enough to continue up to Premie's van where she joined us for a stately cruise in what we now refer to as the G wagon. It should be said here that G spot did manage to litter on the trail but thanks to a trailing Chips we were able to reunite G Spot with her missing glove.

Wet Denim deviously planned an A to B run so everyone bounded to the new property Wet's sister had recently required. Hash Hold, two of the best words in all of Hashdom. What makes a Hash Hold even better! Warmth! Yes, there was a wonderful blazing inferno lighting the night, sending sparks up into the nether and a cheery glow cast upon those gathered around it...problem was those gathered were the neighbors, we all stood in the dark and cold and wished to trade them places. It was a ride in the G wagon back to the circle up where silly songs were song, people were punished, and incredibly Wet Denim was given a beer for her ability to do a lip stand! I can't even do a hand stand!

I know that we enjoyed some laughs and went to a ON ON in a place themed around Hockey but which I cannot recall the name and I'm pretty sure some more lies were uncovered and new falsehood told. The nature of beer drinkers everywhere.

On On,

SNB
