Crazy 8 Run:

It was one of those night that we were all happy to be out – so that was before the temperature dropped to -30. Must have been nice because we saw: Captain Piss Up, Drippy, Slippery, Chips, Boner, DKD, Cum See, and our fearless hare Humiditties.

We circled up at Hunting Hills High School – and it was like old times hanging in the parking lot drinking beer with the cool girls and boys!

Off we sprint (hash sprint) in various directions trying to pick up the elusive trail. It wasn't long before we had split into 2 defined groups – the FRB's (fast running bastards) and the STARS (sexy talented awesome real superstars). Yeah funny how we automatically just knew which group we belonged in.

So off go the runners apparently following the elusive flour trail – I personally never saw any???? Just a word of advice you should really use color in your flour during winter. They said that they:

They ran through the briars
And they ran through the brambles
And they ran through the bushes
Where the rabbit couldn't go
They ran so fast
That the hounds couldn't catch 'em.....
does this sound familiar to anyone else? Hmmmmm

As the STARS of the night we had world solving problem conversations, shovelled peoples sidewalks, save a child from a speeding bus, leaped snow banks in a single bound, won gold medals at ice skating, and yes even found the Hash hold quickly and easily. Those FRB's actually could have gone to Mexico considering how long it took them.

Hash hold was hosted by a Hasher wanna be but considering his hosting skills we will invite him to a camp out this year and see if he is able to “man the fire” as that is the real test. There were yummy treats to share and a nice cozy undisclosed location where we lingered and enjoyed (gathering dirt) each other's company.

At circle up there was lots of banter as versions of stories were shared, changed, made up. There were some punishments for everyone because every last one of you deserved to be called out on something!

It was a great night; the weather was perfect for winter runs. Hash was adjourned and we headed to East 40th where Boner got to be surrounded by all the lovely Harriettes! Does it get any better than that!
