“Never Let the Truth or Libel Laws
Stand in the Way of a Good Story”

Run # 1046- Mar 14th, 2019

Hare(s): Crash Test Rummy

Location: Dynalife labs

Prelube: : Hudsons

On On: Fionn MacCools / Tap House oops

Scribe: Wee Little Bladder

Before I start, I must apologize for my tardiness with this scribe. The truth is - I forgot all about it, until Slippery posted something on the Website, which I read while I was in work, and then I abruptly forgot about it again.....until now!!!!!! 8.30 Wednesday night!!!

Anyway, this is the 2nd time in just a few weeks, that Crash has picked me as a scribe!

This time was just because I traded runs with him!! What the hell is wrong with that? He didn't expect me to show up because he thought I wouldn't be able to make it. When he asked me why I wanted to trade his August Run with him, I told him I'd much rather set a trail on a nice warm summer's evening, than set it in this shitty weather!! A no brainer, really!!! Thanks Crash!!!

As it turned out, it was a beautiful sunny evening, which brought out hashers who we hadn't seen since the last remnants of last summer!!!!!!

Throughout the winter we were getting, what? 8 Hashers if we were lucky!!! Tonight there were 17!!!! Yes, 17!! All dressed in green as it was soon to be St. Paddy's Day.

It seems so long ago now, that I forget who was there, but I do know that Deep Throat dragged herself out after spending the entire winter hibernating, and also a lady who we hadn't seen for what seems like years....Caulk Belly!!!!!! Was it great to see her again!!!!

We were also honoured by the presence of Roadhouse from the Saintly Hash, who I gather was waiting for everyone at the Prelube at 3.30!!!!!! Now there's a true hasher for you!!

Anyway, we circled up South of the old walking bridge - well actually it was South East, but nobody seemed to care!!

Crash headed out with the runners and those of us who were left, followed Cumsee My Box, our walking hare.

All I remember is that we went for a nice stroll long the river, and Caulk Belly stumbled on numerous occasions, trying to make snow angels.

There were a number of punishments at the circle up, but by who and why, I do not recall.

I do remember that Cumsee was rewarded with her 500th Run jacket!!! Congratulations "Cumsee My Lady Box"!!!!

The On-On was at Fionn MacCool's, but when we all arrived there, we were greeted by total darkness!! The bloody place was closed!! What a time for an Irish Pub to close - right before St, Paddy's Day???

We ended up going to the nearby Tap House, where the waitress told us that Fionn's was closed down!!! Wow!!

A great night was had, and it was great to see such a good turnout at the run, and at the On-On. We were joined later by our Oregonian visitor Eager Peever, who had intended to be at the run, but was late driving up from Calgary. He was joined by 2 lovely ladies, who I assumed were fellow hashers, but I later found out that he'd only just met them in the parking lot outside!!!

Well, Eager certainly doesn't waste much time!!
Must be the Portland accent!!!

Thanks for a great run, Crash, and thanks for trading with me!!!

One tip for anyone who's scribing in the future. Do it as soon as you can after the run, to avoid the embarrassment of forgetting everything about it!!!!

On-On,

Weee

A note from our Drinking Master

BAD THIRSTDAY

What can you get for $30... Well on Bad Thirstday you can get drunk.

Dress up as something "Bad" and get drunk. That is what we do on Bad Thirstday plain and simple.

The return of the original running I mean drinking event of the year, key on the drinking.

disclaimer of note - Not for the sober minded.

Good Friday is a holiday so lets all party our asses off on Bad Thirstday.
