Run #26 #1132 November 5th

Hares: Don't Know Dick & Sir Mobeys of Dickus

Location: 5314 42 Ave RD,

Scribe: Slippery

It took some convincing but Mobey's finally decided to let us use his second home as a clubhouse

There are of course rules and specific strange duties that have to be followed.

1. One must keep social distancing
2. A fire watcher must be hired to watch the fire while runners are out
3. The RA MUST NOT hold the circle up around the fire. No matter how cold
4. Hashing is now $200 each Thursday due whether you Cum or not.

The other details of the merger involves some rather strange things.

Specific duties of each hash member;

Sir Wee Little Bladder: to yell at the neighbour kids to get off the lawn. And to punch Hashers in the arm when they arrive

Sir Mobeys of Dickus: remove the for sale sign and concede

Crash Test Rummy : must come to all the runs so he can finally become a king. I mean a “Sir”.

Lady Cum See My Box: finally show us her box. ( that she won that one time). What were you guys thinking? It's her namesake story.

Broken Boner: must take the best parking spot to deliver swill. For the rest of his life

Whore Sleigher: buy sweats

Pucker Sucker: Run. Not necessarily on trail. Just run.

Don't Know Dick: to learn something

TNT: Cook the books

Slippery When Wet: no discernible talent

DickSee Cup: entertain us. ( with clothes on)

Brie: bring a flashlight when it's dark

Deb: stoke the fire.

Doggie: show up after the run.

As more Hashers come out they will receive instructions as to their duties. These are not written in stone. When hashers complete their tasks they will get new ones.

On to the run.

If the hail, pardon me, the sleet had not started at 5:30 I'm sure the attendance at the prelube fire may have been greater. When I arrived at 6:40 the wind had died down and the precipitation subsided. Mobeys, Broken Boner and DKD were huddled around the beautiful fire.

The rest of the Hashers showed up shortly after. (See list above)

We circled up but DKD forgot her flour. She showed us the markings on the grass with her flashlight. They were about as visible as the actual markings out on the street. Brie was a little confused but she didn't have a light so it didn't matter.

Mobey's, the running hare, had a 7 page map that he frequently held upside down so we were all in the dark. Once we hit pavement we found trail easier. Except Pucker, she just ran and ran and ran.

Whore Sleighter who is boycotting Gillette was threatening to walk when he arrived but I shamed him into running. We had 9 runners!!! So cool. Until TNT's knee decided it had had enough part way through. 8 is still really cool!

- The run was great. Mobey's shortcutted ( is that a word??) some of us so we could finish at the same time. All in all we were out an hour and some change. The walkers however decided to stay out and frolic for another 30 minutes. Just before DickSee sent out an amber alert they sauntered in. Did they go to Murphs for a beer? Probably. Can we prove it? Yea. Do we have the time and energy and the desire? Nah.
- Finally, all together we circled up. The king decided to hold the circle away from the fire. We all complained but complied. He holds the power so no one wanted the sleeve. Doggie joined us just then and got rewarded / punished. Same thing. It's always great to see Doggie. It was a great circle and just before we all froze Crash called it and we huddle around the fire.
- An ex local hasher came by to say hi. I didn't catch his name. You all know who he is. Or not.
- Another great run with great attendance. Keep it up!!
