Well, it's a marvellous night for a hash-run
With bright flashlight beams in our eyes

A fantabulous night to find false-trails
Neath the cover of November skies

As the hashers circled up for intro's, Cum see my box arrived
Runners Crash and TNT were sent off, and we all hoped they'd survive.

Pucker was knackered after setting trail and became walking hare for the night
While the walking hashers were led astray, admiring all the Christmas lights

And hashers DKD, Cum See & Mz D seem to whisper and hush,
Listening out for lost hasher Wee Little Bladder peeing in the Bush

Can we just have one more Hash Run before lockdown
Can we just make some more false trails before lockdown

The far off sound of On On which was echoed in the dark of night
As TNT & Crash Test hit every false trail and check back in sight

The Hare went backwards on trail, to try and find the lost hashers,
While in the distance they had seen Mz Dazey's toque flashing.

Can we just have one more hash night before lockdown
Can we just make some more Check Backs before lockdown

While the walkers found the Hash Hold and settled in for the night,
Around a roaring fire tended by Broke Back, we knew things would be alright

The weary runners followed the light to be treated by fire, beer and a great hash hold.
Crash Test Rummy suggested the circle up back to the start which DKD quite rightly told him to F### off and pour himself another.

Well, it was a marvellous night for a hash-run, a great trail, great company and a great pre-birthday celebration for our hare of the night Pucker Sucker.

Well, I want to drink beer with hashers I can't wait for the vaccine to come

Hope we can just have one more Hash Run before lockdown

Let's hope for Some more Beer Near before lockdown
