Run #1156 / September 9th 2021

Hare: Crash & Slippery

Location: Carnival Cinema parking lot

Scribe: Pleasure Chest

Do you have any clue what skills are required to set a run at the last minute? None actually, only a bit of imagination and an internet connection according to the hares. I have to admit being a bit scared at learning that Slippery and Crash had planned the run from the comfort of their couch. I'm still traumatized by the last "set from the couch" run I attended, anyone remembers Suc'N Blow's compass run? Fortunately, this one turned out much better.

I showed up for prelube and thought location had been changed at the last minute as there were no hashers to be found. Luckily, a quick message from Curb Crawler assured me that the rest of the crew's arrival was imminent. Once they showed up, I learned that part of the group actually warms up for the run by playing Pickleball. They pretend it's not warming up but I know better, I'm not as clueless as they think. They'll probably play all winter too as Broken Boner still produces enough body heat to keep the court free of snow. He'll just roll around in his short and t-shirt et voila!

We met by Carnival Cinemas where everyone automatically assumed the circle position. I had to introduce myself first as the RA thought I was out of practice but by the way he was going, he's the one that looked confused. I can easily see why the hash felt Crash needed to be given another year to become an expert at running a circle. I also knew I would be assigned to scribe because that's what happens when you only show up once a year so I beat everyone to the punch and volunteered.

No flour was produced, only an envelope with a little piece of paper was unveiled. The first "Slippery When Wet" clue brought us to the cute slash park with tons of e-scooters. Mount Me and Don't Know Dick immediately proceeded to abandon the walkers by harnessing the electrical power of the machine and joining the runners. Off they went as we walked towards "Troubled Monk" clue # 2 where Lady Miss Dazey tried to lead Sir Weenie and I astray by pretending to see an old friend sitting on the patio. We all know she simply wanted to stop for an extra hash hold but we were steadfast and continued on our way. Accusation of short-cutting and other types of despicable behavior were later thrown at us but all were unfounded.

During that time, the runners were visiting exotic locales such as “West Park Elementary”, “One Eleven Bar & Grill”, a “local pharmacy” (either Millerdale or Guardian), “McDonald’s”, the “Canadian Pacific Railway station” and “Play it Again Sports” before making their way back to the splash park. Thanks Slippery for providing me with most of the clues after the run but none of the answers! Looks like both Sir Mobeys and TNT had no issue figuring out what they meant either but directionally challenged TNT had no clue how to get there. I was assured earlier on in the evening that this would be a “non-shiggy” run but there were definitely some unspoken shenanigans taking place during the evening as Mount Me was covered in burrs by the time she got back.

Circle was a fun affair with multiple punishments and rewards of all kinds. Everyone present had to drink at least once, some multiple times. Seems the group really likes to “Fuck Hymm” to the point of nearly forgetting every other hash song out there but great fun was had by all. Over the years I’ve learned that life in general is very much like a hash run; lots of ups and down and way too many beers but at the end of the day you’re left with good friends and awesome memories. I can only hope that the Victoria H3 is as fun as you all are. Happy trails.
