Run# 1183 - June 30th

Hares: Live Hare

Prelube & On-on: Murphs

Four hares and a hasher

It all started with prelube at Murph's. Six of us were there, but I think Sir Wee Little Bladder just showed up for the live music. He didn't even hash!! WTF! Certainly a punishable offense.

Slippery When Wet and Crash Test Rummy came up with an awesome adaptation of a live hare run. We would change the live hare every 15 minutes. Therefore I will count Crash and Slippery as hares.

After a brief explanation, Lady Cum See My Box took off with a can of flour. She set an admirable trail and proved walkers do know what markings are. After 15 minutes, she let the runners catch her and we all had a shot!

Next, we played spin the bottle and unnamed Shannon took over as hare. She got so excited that we never did catch her. It was an excellent trail for her virgin trail. Runners and walkers were together the entire time. We finally had to head back to circle up and have another shot to celebrate a great run.

As the only non-hare Curb Crawler took it upon himself to check the wrong way several times. Thanks for taking more than one for the team Curb!

At circle up everyone was either punished or rewarded. Then we returned to Murph's for the on-on and more live music. We sat outside though so we could tell tall tales and the music wasn't too loud.

Overall everyone had a good time at what turned out to be a strong candidate for run of the year.
