Run# 1184 - July 14th

Hare: Curb Crawler

Start: Maskepetoon Park;

Prelube & On On: Mojave Grill

TNT started off in one direction while Prickly bush and Shanon took off in other directions. The race started off slow as the runners were confused at the hare's markings. Once the hare's technique and style were deciphered the runners were off to keep chilled from the plus 28 heat wave. The markings were keenly placed and the hare Curb had the runners running in all directions to find the right trail. Lots of marked boxes, holes and stiff wood were used to guide the runners down the right paths.

At one point Curb called "call on" in which Shanon replied " Polo' thinking she heard Curb say,"Marco". An honest mistake made by Shanon who had a chuckle at her own mistake.

Walkers, Cum see, Dixy cup, Don't know Dick, Pucker and Wee joined in with the runners. All survived the rugged terrain of hills and stairs to come to the end and drown their parched throats with cold wet beverages. Mosquitoes decided to make their presence allowing Shanon to whack them off Wee, Prickly Bush and whomever needed to be whacked.

When all were refreshed the group went off to circle up and deal out the punishments. As it was a hot sticky night it was decided a cold block of ice would be a nice way to punish those that have misbehaved. A few boxes were tested but all survived the first class frozen block. The first one up was Don't know Dick. She sat diligently on the block leaving an indent of her box on the block of ice. Second, Shanon chilled and enjoyed the frozen sensation between her legs that accentuated the puddles forming. Up next was Prickly bush who enjoyed turning round and round on the ice like she was on a merry go round. It was becoming quite evident that the cold wet block was being enjoyed by all that experienced it and not so much a punishment.

Shanon got a hat trick as the hashers took their sweet ass time giving the newbie not only a frozen extremely wet box but finally a hash name. It was decided that Shanon would now be named- Whack me off!

Mobey finished off the punishment by showing the group how to mount the block of ice with class, the hash way.

Yes, he shared with everyone as he was sighted by many and did not stir when photos were taken by many bystanders. Lots of puddles were formed and lots of boxes and ass were cooled after such a hot day.

At Mohave grill the poor waitress was given a hard time by Wee as his hearing was very selective. It was very clear it was not his night as Cum See flipped food into Wee's drink.

A great way to end the hot sticky day., with a cold ass and frozen boxes. Next run set For July 28th

Scribe: Whack me off
