The Tale of Two Scribes

Great run and walk for the 21st of September

Weather was great, and the scenery was fantastic, with fall colors and the amazing trails at the bike park. Had a good turnout, with 16 enthusiastic hashers in attendance, plus 3 virgins.

The evening started off a bit rough and went downhill from there. With the above normal crowd the swill cooler was not quite full enough, so Grabbin Wood graciously offered to go and grabbin some more beer. My bad as acting swill meister, punish me please!!

Circle up went smooth, Crash filled in for Sir Moby, and led the group through introductions of the members and the newbies. Cum C explained the meaning of the symbols and then some were off and running, some were off walking and some were just a little off. Don't Know Dick was thirsty so was into the sauce as we took our first few steps.

We hit the valley pretty quick and got into the bike trails, lots of jumps, obstacles, banked turns and catwalks. You wont catch me on a bike in there. Sir WLB and LMD were back from their European holiday, great to have them back.

Not a lot happened on the walk, we lost a few people here and there, Grabbin Wood found us half way through the trail. Don't Know Dick showed us how to hide in the forest by being a tree. The runners didn't see much of us cause we could hide so well. Cum C led us, or a better word might be herded us. I only heard her curse once, but it went on for a bit. We eventually found the hash-hold, had some licourice and beverage on the trail and then headed back to Circle up.

At Circle up (kangaroo court) all kinds of allegations and charges were being brought up as follows

-Prickly Bush was charged with her 50th birthday. She was guilty, also guilty of a spectacular muff dive at JDs.

-Don't Know Dick was charged with a poor imitation of a tree.

-Broken Boner was alleged to have led the group much of the time and showed the virgins what to do??????

-Pucker Sucker walked!!!!?

-Goes halfway said she likes a good Manwich??!!

-TNT is thinking of switching to biking!!??

-Crash fell??!!

-Grabbin Wood and Whore Sleighter disrespected the sanctitty of the circle!!!

-Slippery, I cant remember what she did, but I bet it was pretty bad!!

-Dixie Cup was sporting a fancy set of beads??!!

-Curb was part of a Muff Dive incident at JDs.

-The three virgins, whose real identities I am protecting, or whose names I have forgotten. (You are welcome/ I am sorry) Some pretty graphic fall reenactments, and yes they were very guilty and knew what they were doing!!!

The strangest night for anyone by far will be for the visitor from Wheels On. I think he must have wondered what the heck he stumbled onto and can only imagine the stories he is telling. Might have a hasher there.

We met up at JDs, Moby showed up theree, with some lame excuse about having to work!!!

The muff dive took place, had lots of laughs, and some good food with some great people.

If I forgot anyone, its because you didn't do anything stupid.
