Hares: Curb

Location: One Eleven

What a wonderful night for hashing, the white fully stuff has delayed so we could enjoy just a few more warm nights with no ice (or very little). So with that in mind it was only fitting that prelube started in a place called "Cheers"- Where the hell is that again? Well it did not disappoint as Curb as our appointed hare got a very special addition to his beverage.....what you ask? Well that is still the question.

Circle up was called outside One Eleven and wow the turn out was fabulous! We even had fresh meat – oh I mean a virgin! It was so nice of Laura to make her new boss come – with that kind of start I see a long fruitful relationship blooming there. I like it hard just smiled so he must be ok with it. Dick See Cup finally got "Can't cum" to join him. Others who attended were Crash &

Slippery, Cum see, Wee, Mobey, Boner, DKD, TNT, Prickly, and the virgin. It was a great turn out.

Trail was set with itty bitty tinny Winn foot prints that some say were few and far between. Runners started off following an arrow up the on icy hill that there was, there were bobbing headlamps everywhere, the walkers watched from a respectable distance and then shook our head and went the other way. Apparently, there was not just running up the hill but some butt sliding happening as well.

A little while later the walkers came across the runners that were scattered all over as they had a checking mark but could not seem to find a new trail. The walkers of course helped them and went on our way. Being a true walking hare DKD made sure the experience somewhat reflected the runner experience. We moved along the trail and then just happened to go into the prickly bushes as it was promised by the hare. We aligned with the runners to go on and explore a lovely trail and discovered it lead to a once loving home that had been torn apart by unspeakable acts of infidelity and possibly lots of drugs and other substances. We all stopped and wept over the unfortunate and emotional break up sign on cardboard. Oh well like all trails – all good things must come to an end.

Not to be deterred we all carry on and soon come to a wonderful spot with many great memories for me – 13 to be exact, how was I to know this is where trail was set, I just wanted a nice quiet drink or 13.

We stumbled around a few more corners and finally found a sign we could follow

We couldn't believe that it didn't lead to the golden stash we were looking for. Onward we go and find the trail again, into the lovely trees to enjoy a little bit of shiggy and if not careful crawling over some of the trees could have impaled you in some very sensitive places. We went on and found HH in the trees but once again could not find the golden elixir.

We gave up and returned to the very close starting point and picked up a hot chick with such amazing hair, then when we put the light on we realized it was Grabbin Wood – apparently she wanted to impress someone????? Shortly after we saw a pack of lights zig zagging through the trees on the hill and we were all reunited.

We had a wonderful HH and circle up with some rewards, birthday cheers for our virgin, and some undeserved punishments oh and some well-deserved ones – you have to figure it out.
