Cliff Notes:

- Pre-Lube at Hazzard County in Sylvan Lake
 - Already cocaine remnants in the washroom prior to dinner rush
 - Confused waitresses equals free round of drinks.
- Short walk/drive to Circle Up in parking lot beside Nexsource Center/AH&S
- A herd of 14 Strong
- Dirty rumors of trail set on a bike had us concerned.
- Chalk Shortage resulted in pinecone markings demonstration.
- Weather held up nicely! Cloud cover prevented the major burns and small breeze kept the bugs away.
- Up and down and all around chasing little footy prints for trail markings.
- Leading eventually to the discovery of Beer Near and Hash Hold markers on the pier...but no Hash Hold nor Beer, was near.
- After a small cool down and contact with walkers, via illegal electronic devices, a communication relay of engine issues with the floating hash hold that was to be present at the pier. They were still at the Marina.
- New unmarked run from old Hash Hold to new Hash Hold.
- Engine running on a surprise boat Hash Hold upon arrival! Walkers were thirsty as they were denied early hash hold beverages prior to group re-gathering.
- Out to the open seas lake for a Hash Hold Adventure
- Few Hashers enjoyed the dip into the, quite surprisingly, warm water.
- Smoky sunset, bright red, enjoyed in the distance.
- Back to the pier, too much traffic, back to the Marina.
- Bush pees enjoyed for those that didn't take advantage of peeing while swimming.

- Late finish, small walk back to vehicles, circle up and punishments/rewards postponed due to time constraints to make last call for food and drink at Lodge 43.
- Delicious grub and beverages obtained and consumed prior to restaurant closing.
- Don't Know Dick presented with beautiful 200 Run Jacket.
- On-On!

Rumblings of the next run on the 8th to be White and/or Trailer Trash themed.

Cheers.
