The Moustache Run!

Men's only hashes are the best ones. This one proved it.

I got to watch incredible feats of manliness at the beginning of the run as I watched hashers spontaneously grow moustaches right in front of my very eyes.

They had icons of masculinity show up today like Hulk “Can’t Cum” Hogan, Colonel “Little Bladder” Sanders, Ned motherdiddlyuckin’ Flanders, and The Führer himself! Which was the most shocking one since I was under the impression he died of embarrassment after World War Two, but I’m not a history buff and am chronically wrong about these kinds of things.

The moustache ride we were taken on was laden with boob metaphors and a gender bent version of Grabbin Wood that I’m sure Moby thinks about every time he’s having sex. It was mostly uneventful except for Broken Boner acting weird, cutting trail and shivering in what is basically summer weather (fucking weird.) Even weirder was his legs were way hairier than usual. Like someone stapled a couple of Sasquatch pelts to his legs.

But I digress...

The walkers were mostly jogging the entire time, with Sir Wee Little Sanders and Senñr Wet Spot actively running and driving places to beat the runners and the walkers, Lord Mr Daisy and Cum See my Bulge.

Afterwards some manly beers were had and even more moustaches grown before my eyes, except for TNT, the only lady who decided to show up. I'm very glad that everyone showed up to support male alopecia or whatever we were supposed to be raising awareness for. I was just there for the beer.

Anyway if you'd like to support ball cancer or whatever send your donations to jordangrantbell@gmail.com, you'll literally be saving the world.
