Scribe. I like it hard
Boner Run one million and 17.

Who was there:

Broken Boner Grabbing Prickly, Curb, Crash, Slippery, Sir Mobey, Grabbing, Wet spot
Cum on her, Pussy foot, Wee, Ms Dazey, TNT, Kelsey, Mackenzie, Don't know dick
Dick see cup, Pucker sucker, I like it hard

Tonight's epic, fantastic, most amazing run was brought to us by Broken Boner the grill master himself! This is how we finished the night. Boner grilling us a whole bunch of epic homemade burgers! That's how the night ended how it started different story.

I Like it Hard in a classic, and in purposefully epic fashion came in late. riding in his supersonic mega bike. Impressing the onlookers, and the newcomers alike.

Not only did I Like it Hard park safely, but he did not tip over and hurt himself or the bike so all was good. As soon as bike was parked, I like it Hard found out that he was now the scribe. Even his entrance was magnificent he was indeed a bit tardy.

The walkers, Walked the runners ran and the night was on.

Don't Know Dick, the walking hare led the walkers, astray for miles and miles leading us up and down ravines, and valleys, crossed rivers, up the Highlands, down the lowlands and through the valleys. The walkers were so lost the runners caught up to the walkers, and the walkers and the runners all melded into ONE. As the Hares intended.

The trail ended up being a 4000-foot vertical climb for miles and miles. The runners became walkers in the walkers were walking so fast that they joined the run.

Wee Little Bladder was leading other strays to which he was rightly so punished for. The trek was up vigorous mountain tops and up the Highlands of Central Alberta. The Hash House Harriers continued on their quest for Beer Near!!

That day we joined by Kelsey, and a new virgin named McKenzie, brought to us by Sir Mobey of Dickus. And her mother-in-law Grabbing Wood. There is lots of wood to be Grabbed in this epic quest as Boner tied random strings to tiny little twigs that were found on the ground, especially by a Wet Spot.

The Hash Hold was finally found after the quest of the Highlands and the 4000-foot vertical, steep mountainous terrain. There were many cougar sightings (insert hash female name of choice) and many fell victim to the treacherous Trail. Notably Prickly, Bush, Crash Test Rummy, Broken Boner and Wet Spot. All victims of said trail were rightly so punished.

Circle up was fueled with passion and vengeance by significant others not a soul was left untouched in this epic adventure. ON On
