ROAD HASH (RASH) BIKE AND SKATE

Skate section (cool kids): lead by yours truly, we took a much shorter route. Cantalingus hadn't boarded in a decade and proceeded to eat shit twice on the ride and left the road some skin to remember him by. Wet Spot came pre-scabbed from a biking incident that wasn't hash involved and still rode beautifully. And my boarding went fantastic and incident free, save for the Michener mall cops showing up and giving us shit for drinking in the parking lot.

Biking section (nerds): Dixie Cup sped down every tricky trail at 50 miles an hour. Crash attempted to do the same maneuvers and almost killed Slippery. Cum See decided to skip some of the more difficult trails and opted to instead harass the locals (which, good job, that's what we're meant to do with this group.) Whoreslayer set a great trail but set it about half an hour longer than planned.

Walking group (wtf?): Wee decided to walk by himself straight to the hash hold and then proceeded to get us in shit with the Michener parking lot cops. Maybe we should move him in there.
