“Never let the Truth or Libel Laws stand in the way of a good story”

Hares: Pucker Sucker and Botty Cutie

Location: Earth in the Riverside industrial Quadrant

Before you read any further you must be ready to hear things that could shape and or alter your perception of your own existence. This is about the Past, Present and dare I say Future.... It can be difficult for a normal human hasher to comprehend the ability to shape and or bend time. Having the ability to go back in time and move seamlessly through different periods helping shape the hash world that you think you know today. My name is Chips a Whore, in this timeline, and I am thethen, now and future.

What can seem like years to some can seem like days to others. I was asked where I have been all this time and I guess the simplest answer that you will be able to comprehend is I am here and I am everywhere. As a time traveler compensated by the UHUH – Universal Hash Ultimate Hero agency, I have seen and experienced many things you likely would not be able to understand. I have been instructed to come back to observe and disclose vital information related to the various time differentials to allow you to open and explore your minds and guide you forward by exploring variances in these timelines. I knew I would be named scribe as I have been here before many times. This scribe was written at a time before most of you were born on a cave wall. I have had it transposed into a current word document so you didn't have to time travel to view the original.

We arrived to the prelube early at the scheduled time and as normal no one was there. Pucker and Booty arrived soon after and joined by Crash, Slippery, TnT and I like it Hard

In the Past – Hashers would meet at a local pub and enjoy some beers

In the Present – Hashers are so eager to seamlessly get to the run that they have the pre-lube at the actual start of the run...quite odd but cleverly efficient

In the Past – just before the start of the run all the women hashers would run to the trees and go to the bathroom

In the present - just before the start of the run all the women hashers would run to the trees and go to the bathroom

In the Past – The amount of runs you have been on and the amount of money you have left in Hash Cash were written on napkins or toilet paper

In the present - Dick See Cup pulls out his cell phone and lets you know historical records from the last 10 years. Dripping Wet Gap with 52 runs remaining???. With my frequent returns to previous timelines, I likely paid a few times too many in a virtual payment loop.

In the Past – Cum See My Box would arrive 3-5 minutes late for the start of the run

In the Present – I was told we had to wait 3-5 minutes past run start time for Cum see my Box to arrive – sadly we missed her as she did not attend even after waiting

In the past – Cum Honor wore his normal attire to the run. Black Wife Beater, Shorts etc

In the present – the exact same outfit is being worn to the run to this day

The unnamed Just Mackenzie was there sounds like she is always cumming now and pretty much cumming weekly. I asked her how many times she had been out she said “ I don’t know like 6/7 - 6/7.” 😊

In the Past – The Hares would come into the circle using chalk/flour and leave a literal map of markings so the hashers would be able to find these same markings on trail

In the Present - - Pucker Sucker enters and displays an interpretive dance which appears to be recognized by the other hashers but leaving a strange void to some not privy

In the past - Pucker Sucker was an FRB runner

In the present – Pucker Sucker brings her crippled brother Booty Cutie to do the run while she is the walking hare

The run itself was quite familiar, the markings were scarce, similar to the ones we saw in the circle 😊. Runners pissed and moaned about starting the run by running up two large hills right off the bat. Next, we played frogger with traffic on 67st. Complaints of mosquitoes, bad markings, steep hills sliding down on their asses. The only thing that didn’t seem the same was that Crash Test Rummy didn’t come out bleeding from a fall.

In the past – the walking group could take 2-3 times as long on the trail due to slowness and too much chatting

In the Present – The walking group moved slightly faster than my normal run speed

In the past – talking about the “R” word would result in sever punishments

In the present – I Like it Hard spoke very cautiously to not say the word, he has been trained well, yet was punished anyways.

In the Past – runs could be 1-1 ½ hours long so I opted out of running and walked as I knew Pucker would have a nasty long ass run

In the present – Run lasted 29 minutes I was told

In the circle punishments were given out. Dripping Wet Gap and myself Chips a Whore for being absent last few runs. I Like it Hard for 5 or 6 different things that he may or may not have done (don’t worry I remember those days of being wrongly accused). We were handed songs books which were nice although made it difficult to double fists the beers like in the past.

In the past – you would have had to do a sleeve for something harsh unless your name was Chips a Whore, then it could be for anything even small things or made up things

In the present – Wet Spot started as a runner switched to walker then back to a runner and was sleeved – harsh

In the Past – not having songs books made singing songs like El Camino almost impossible for Slippery When Wet and TnT to remember the words

In the Present – this is the first time I had heard this exact song sung to it completion properly – da books werk

Happy Anniversary to Cum Honor and Wet Spot they were brought in and punished / celebrated

In the Past – this significant event would result in a 69 down down where they lay on each other in the 69 position and drink their beer

In the present – No 69 down down. Only Wet Spot literally unable to drink her beer crying in the middle of the circle wanting a 69 down down

Another celebration down down for Just Mackenzie whose birthday is tomorrow. Not tomorrow tomorrow but today or yesterday depending on which timeline you are on. Time travel is hard but be sure to enjoy your day Mackenzie!

In the Past – On your birthday you may get a surprise shot from between Mitzi Gaynors special areas or get a blowjob shooter at the ONON or both

In the present – still a shot , maybe poor Mitzi has been stolen again ;(

After Circle up ONON to Mr Mikes which I missed

Now I have to be careful what I share with you of the future as too much knowledge in a normal human hashers hands can be detrimental to the time space continuum, hence the reason it has been left in my extremely very capable hands. I likely the only one who could maneuver this information. I have been to the future so understand the items listed below will happen with the upmost 1000% certainty whether you want to believe them or not.

THE FUTURE

- A new RA is named in the coming weeks. Just so you know it is someone very familiar to you.
- Just Mackenzie officially gets named. A well thought out relative name that fits just right. Expect an announcement in the not too distant future. Congrats! I hope you love your name
- I Like it Hard competes in his “event” this weekend and although satisfied he completes it, it still doesn’t feel like a great accomplishment but was an enjoyable experience with alcohol involved
- Cum See my Box ends up arriving on time for a run but mostly due to her forgetting daylight savings time isn’t changing anymore and actually shows up 57 minutes early for a run! ‘
- Pucker Sucker returns to running due to reading this scribe and feeling like she can do better. You’re welcome for the inspiration it was part of the reason I was sent back
- Crash Test Rummy falls down a hill runs into a tree after 3 somersaults comes out with a scratched knee
- Slippery When Wet forgets to piss before a run and almost immediately into a fresh run has to stop and piss on trail holding up the other runners who do not wait for her.
- Booty Cuties torn bicep heals and he can return to regular activities with his new bionic arms. There will be complaints from others while playing pickleball that he has an unfair AI / robotic advantage. In the end because of other upcoming injuries becomes totally bionic and becomes a cop. They make a movie about him in the future call Robocop.
- TnT – In most of the future runs uses the changing weather as a feeble excuse to model here entire wardrobe of clothes to all the other hashers
- Dick See Cup – gets punished for tampering and padding paid run totals in his spreadsheets. The non collection of funds and adding of “unofficial” runs to old hashers misallocates dollars which directly inhibits the ability to allow the swill to have a better selection of proper beers. Claims it as a “data entry” clerical error.

- Dripping Wet Gap gets punished during a future circle up by everyone for bringing forth more charges than the RA. It is a sleeve of a mixed con cock shun.
- Chips a Whore wins Galactic Beersbee championship going undefeated through all 83 rounds even beating robotic sentinels. Retires from sport which makes the sport crumble and no longer exists in the future as no one was quite that good and it just ruined the sport.

ONON all and look forward to seeing you all at a FUTURE run and event
